- In consideration of Track Cycling WA inc. accepting my application for membership, I agree that the association, its members and officials will not be hold responsible for any personal injury or property damage or loss suffered by me. I also release the association from any liability for negligence.
- I acknowledge that I will be riding at my own risk. I further understand that track cycling is an endurance sport that requires a high degree of fitness and accept the risk that I may suffer illness of injury if I take part in such a sport while insufficiently fit or health.
- If further agree I accept the clubs rules, constitution and rules for race conduct if I choose to race in schedule race events.
- This membership is solely a membership to Track Cycling WA, and I understand that this membership allows me to train and ride on scheduled training night at membership rate. It does not allow me to race without a racing licence. I further understand that if I wish to race in scheduled events that I need to seek a racing licence with Cycling Australia.
